INSIDER INFORMATION

Holaluz announces its decision to withdraw earnings guidance 2023-2025 going forward. Guidance was initially provided on October 31, 2023 through an Insider Information communication.

This decision has been taken due to several factors, including the industry being impacted by various external factors outside of the Company's control (including, but not limited to, spot energy prices and the interest rates environment) which affect the Company's ability to accurately forecast and, therefore, provide meaningful guidance to the market.

The Company is committed to keeping investors and the market fully informed of its progress and publishes a number of KPIs to enable measurement of progress towards its strategic aims and full transparency.

In compliance with the provisions of the BME MTF Equity Circular 3/2020, it is expressly stated that the information provided has been prepared under the exclusive responsibility of the Company and its directors.
